WEST VIRGINIA BULLETIN NO: 360-5-21

SUBJECT: PER – Low Cost Calf Production Workshop

Purpose: To provide information on a “Low Cost Calf Production”
Workshop with featured speaker Dr. Dick Divan

Expiration Date: April 15, 2005

WVU Extension is offering a workshop entitled “Low Cost Calf Production”. The workshop on April 4 – 6, 2005 will be held at the Ramada Inn in Morgantown. This will be presented by Dr. Dick Divan who has participated in the Winter Educational Meeting Series over the last 2 to 3 years. This workshop will begin at 1 PM on the 4th and end at noon on the 6th. There are 10-15 openings for NRCS field staff and Grassland Technicians. The workshop is provided at no cost. Your attendance is dependent upon your immediate supervisor and the Assistant State Conservationist-Field Offices (ASTC-FO) approvals. Travel to attend will be paid out of the Areas budget. ASTC-FO will notify Charlotte Wertz, Training Officer, of those approved to attend to insure we do not exceed our allowable attendance level.

If you are interested in attending, please contact Isaac Wolford, State Agronomist at 304-284-7580 no later than March 23, 2005.
